

Please give less power to the large media conglomerates and more control to local media. This is the first step to ensure true freedom of information. This is still a democracy after all.